

Fact Sheet

Location: Westmoreland Fairgrounds in Mt. Pleasant, PA (about 20 minutes from New Stanton, PA)

Dates: November 20, 2009 through January 1, 2010 (open every day, including holidays)

Hours:

Sunday-Thursday	5:30 p.m. - 10:00 p.m.
Friday & Saturday	5:30 p.m. - 11:00 p.m.
Christmas Eve	6:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.

Admission: $10 per car or family van
$12 per limousine, extended passenger van or minivan
(price includes Mt. Pleasant Township amusement tax)

Web site: www.overlys.com

Phone: 724-423-1400

Facebook: <http://www.facebook.com/overlyscountrychristmas>

Twitter: @overlys

- Check our Facebook and Twitter pages for breaking news and updates about events.

Highlights:

- Drive through 2.1 million lights
- Stroll through five acres of the country-themed Christmas Village
- View a life-sized nativity scene with live animals
- Take the children on a Kids' Express Train Ride from 6 p.m.-10 p.m. (weather permitting)
- Ride through Christmas Village in a horse-drawn wagon or sleigh (weather permitting; sleigh rides only on the weekends)
- See the area's largest G-gauge model train display and railroad memorabilia at Hartman Station
- Meet and greet Overly's mascot, "Twinkle," and "the Grinch" on weekends
- Take pictures with Santa Claus (until December 23)
- Gather around the bonfire to sing carols or roast marshmallows
- Visit C. Edgar & Sons General Store to shop for handmade ornaments, crafts and decorations
- Treat yourself to some kettle corn or homemade fudge from the Sweete Shoppe
- Discover the new additions to Overly's traditions such as Sugar Plums, North Pole Funnel Cakes, hand-dipped chocolate popcorn and other chocolate treats

Supporters and friends of Overly's Country Christmas® include: KDKA, First Commonwealth Bank, Galliker's Dairy, Vogt's Brentwood Station, Dr. King Hartman and Dave and Sue Powell.